

NextGen Value Chain Transformation

Client Business Challenge

- Client suffering from highly heterogeneous businesses across various business units and global regions
- Company running an extremely fragmented IT-landscape including various non-standardized tools and individualized IT programs
- Level of operational excellence of processes significantly below expectations
- Degree of digitalization below industry standard, company stuck in maintaining as-is situation

BearingPoint Contribution

- Re-design and harmonize global business processes along the principles of operational excellence using our Business Transformation Framework incl. latest industry-specific leading practices
- Create operating model for the upcoming transformation program and align with organization

Client Business Outcomes

- Lean business processes in terms of efficiency and economies of scale implemented based on leading industry practices
- Digital process maturity degree lifted by taking advantage of field-tested innovations within business processes
- Harmonization of business processes across BUs and regions – harmonization degree > 90%
- Standardization of IT systems across BUs and regions – standardization degree > 85%